

My husband is a trucker with XM Radio. He finds the XM Instant Traffic & Weather service invaluable. When he approaches a major city he tunes in the service to get the information he needs. The traffic reports are especially important since time is money for a trucker. If he had to search for local stations on his radio he could very well have an accident due to inattention. Please allow XM Radio to keep this service.